THIRD WORLD RELIEF AGENCY, EL FATIH HASSANEIN, AND SUKARNO HASSANEIN

Documents produced by the IIRO in this litigation demonstrate that IIRO Secretary General Adnan Basha conducted an investigation into the disappearance of 779,750 Saudi riyals the IIRO advanced to El Fatih Hassanein during his tenure as head of the IIRO's branch office in Vienna. That investigation, occurring between 1998 and 2001 (potentially longer), implicated not only Hassanein, but also Zaher Abdul Aziz who served as the Regional Supervisor for IIRO branch offices in Bosnia-Herzegovina, Croatia, and Slovenia. Zaher Abdul Aziz has been identified as a member of the mujahideen in Bosnia and a possible accessory to the 1994 murder of British aid worker Paul Goodall near Zenica, Bosnia-Herzegovina. All relevant documentation relating to this investigation and its final outcome should be produced.

In 1987, Hassanein founded the Third World Relief Agency ("TWRA"), a purported charitable organization that became an integral component of al Qaeda's support infrastructure. U.S. intelligence has described Hassanein as a well-connected leader of the Sudanese National Islamic Front ("NIF") and fervent supporter of Osama bin Laden. Under Hassanein's leadership, the TWRA was a primary conduit for channeling financial, logistical, and operational support for al Qaeda's global jihad. The 9/11 Commission concluded that bin Laden used the TWRA to "covertly provide financial and other support for terrorist activities." See 9/11 Commission Final Report at 58.
